Local Accommodation List

REDBOURN LOCALITY

Redbourn is a small English village set between the towns of Harpenden, St. Albans and Hemel Hempstead and close to Luton/Luton Airport. The village has local shops, a few restaurants and several pubs that serve good food. It is just off the M1 at Junction 9. Hotels in the Redbourn locality are isolated in terms of location and local amenities, although the Ramada is within walking distance.

HARPENDEN www.harpenden.gov.uk

Harpenden is a small town with lots of amenities and good transport links. Hotels are a 2-3 minute walk to the centre of town with numerous good restaurants, pubs and take-aways. There is a local sports centre and the rail line is on the Thameslink line connecting it to Luton and Gatwick Airports as well as regular and fast trains to central London and St Pancras/Eurostar.

Hemel Hempstead

Hemel Hempstead is a modern town with a full range of high street stores, restaurants and local amenities including sports centre, cinema, ski slope, climbing wall etc.. The rail line is on the Midlands line connecting it to London Euston and Birmingham.

St Albans

St Albans is a Victorian City with a busy high street and numerous bars and restaurants. It is also on the Thameslink line connecting it to Luton and Gatwick Airports as well as regular and fast trains to central London and St Pancras/Eurostar. Traffic can be heavy during peak times.

Travel Information

Delegate Expenses

- All travel, accommodation and general expenses are excluded from our course fees.
- We cannot provide costs or estimates for personal expenses, as each person's needs are very different.

Location & Travel

- We are located outside of London, approximately 25 miles north of central London.
- Although Redbourn is in a village location, it is local to the main towns of Harpenden, St Albans, Hemel Hempstead and Luton, all of which are linked via road and are served by taxis, bus and rail networks.
- All these towns are within a few miles of each other and also have train links to central London as well as rail/bus links to London airports.

Rail Links

- Harpenden, St Albans and Luton are connected to central London and Gatwick Airport via the 'Thameslink' rail service.
- The 'Eurostar' train service terminates at Kings Cross / St Pancras train station which is also on the 'Thameslink' line.
- Hemel Hempstead is connected to central London's Euston station, a short distance from Kings Cross / St Pancras.
- Harpenden train station is the closest and fast trains operate into central London regularly and take 20-25 minutes.
- There is a taxi rank at each of the local train stations.

London Airports

- London Luton is the nearest Airport and a taxi to Redbourn/Harpenden and is between £12-£20, depending on the time of day.
- London Gatwick and Harpenden are directly connected by the 'Thameslink' train line and the journey time is about 80-90 minutes.
- London Heathrow is connected to London Luton via a coach service, alternatively the London Underground can be taken into central London connecting with the 'Thameslink' train line.
- London Stansted is connected to London Luton via a coach service, alternatively, overground trains can be taken into central London and then back out to Harpenden.

Road Links

- We are located just off the main M1 motorway, between junctions 8 & 9
- The M25 motorway at junction 21 connects to the M1 at junction 6

Accommodation

- A local accommodation list is available on our website or upon request.
- Although Luton is further to travel for the courses, it is a university town and has cheaper lodgings and local services aimed at students, as well as some lodgings which have cooking facilities, the following web address will provide links to various facilities
